

Irrelevant and Sensitive

Irrelevant & Sensitive

('Property')

Connection to landslide

- ☐ Full time resident of Property since March 2020
- ☐ The property is in the exclusion zone, have not been able to reside at the Property since January 12th 2025 landslide:
 - o Only been able to access on one occasion for approx. an hour due to Mornington Peninsula Council determinations.

Authorities Responses

- ☐ November 2022 Landslide – No notification of the landslide from any of the authorities – Mornington Peninsula Council, SES/Other. Only aware of the landslide from the media.
- ☐ January 5, 2025 Landslide - No notification of the landslide from any of the authorities – Mornington Peninsula Council/Other. Was unaware that the landslide had occurred.
- ☐ January 12, 2025 Landslide –
 - o Working from the property at the time of the landslide, was aware of the landslide and was in Penny Lane minutes after the landslide.
 - o SES crew member instructed me to leave the Property at approx. 10.00am. Instructions were that I would be able to return later that day.
 - o Mornington Peninsula Council then issued formal notices to exclude access to the Property from 17th January 2025. No consultation, notices were placed on the gates at the front of the Property.
- ☐ As at the time of the submission still excluded from the Property by Mornington Peninsula Council but have not been provided with any evidence of the risk to the Property.

Personal Impact of Landslide

- ☐ Forced to move out of the area since January 12, 2025, living over an hour away from the Property with family.
- ☐ Living in limbo over when or if we can re-reside at the Property with poor and confusing timelines on when, who and what basis any decisions on reoccupation are/will be made.
- ☐ Impacted financially/personally –
 - o Having to take time off work/miss other events due to attending meetings.
 - o Property burgled during the time of exclusion and still unable to fully determine the damage and items stolen with only being afforded one hour of access to the property since January 12, 2025.
 - o Impacted with the living arrangement impacting normal lifestyle, routines and causing added stress to myself and other family members.